DEDICATION

To a man of many talents; whose versatile abilities have aided him in jobs no one else wanted.

To a man who quietly lives before us, never complaining, showing patience, loyalty, sportsmanship, and general friendliness.

To one who has helped with the building of Christ-like characters for this life and the life to come.

To you, Mr. Spady, with hearts full of deep admiration and warm affection, we dedicate the 1961 RAINIER VISTA and add your name to the list of wonderful people, chosen throughout the years, to occupy this treasured page.

FACULTY

ELDER L. E. McCLAIN, PRINCIPAL

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students:

Another school year comes to a close. This Rainier Vista will keep alive in your memories the happenings of the year. It will recall memories of happiness, friendship, achievement, success, and failure. It is my desire that you may not only reremember these lessons of Christian livbut may you long remember the spiritual lessons your teachers have endeavored to teach you. My hope is that you not only remember these lessons of Christian living, but that you apply them to your daily life.

May the memories of this school year at Auburn Academy stir us to a renewed determination to live the life that will fit us for life eternal.

L.E. McClain

L. E. McCLAIN, PRINCIPAL

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

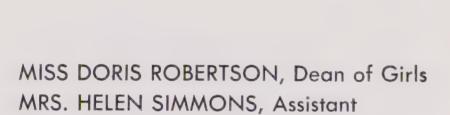

MR. JOE DAY; MR. WILLIS CAMPBELL; ELDER F. E. FROOM; ELDER C. R. AIMES; ELDER J. C. KOZEL; MR. EDGAR ORTNER; ELDER J. T. PORTER; ELDER L. E. McCLAIN, SECRETARY; ELDER N. R. DOWER, CHAIRMAN; DR. ROBERT YOUNG; ELDER E. K. MOOERS; MR. E. C. CHRISTIE; ELDER GEORGE RASMUSSEN; ELDER ED H. WEBB; ELDER DUANE ANDERSON; ELDER M. J. PERRY.

MR. EDGAR W. ORTNER, Treasurer MR. DONALD CANTRELL, Registrar

The vital statistics involved in our school program are in the capable hands of these men. No absence goes unrecorded or store charge unnoticed. When problems arise with grades or finances these men are always ready to give needed counsel and assistance.

Sharing the joys and sorrows, success and failures, of 130 girls is the work of the South Hall deans. Reward for the long hours spent comes in seeing the girls build characters that will stand in the mighty conflict of life.

MR. RON BARROW, Dean of Gibson MR. NORMAN WOODS, Dean of Manous

With these deans rests the responsibility of developing attributes which produce the traits of noble manhood. By combining a sense of moral values, fair play and humor, their work is a strong influence in each boy's life.

ELDER EDWIN READING ELDER NORMAN CHAMBERLAIN

The giving of a Christ-centered education is the purpose for which Auburn Academy exists. The fulfillment of this aim depends to a large degree on the daily religious instruction of these men.

ELDER C. L. WITZEL MR. BILL SIMMONS

Learning to live successfully through the experiences of others is the foundation of the social science, Bible, and counseling departments. These men have both the knowledge and ability to make these subjects practical.

With acrid odors escaping from the doors and windows and numerous equations and calculations written on the black-boards, the classrooms of said men take on the appearance of "organized confusion."

ELDER VERNON BERRY MR. RAY LEADBETTER MR. CLEO LILE

Equipment recently purchased in the language department prompts some experimentation on the part of these teachers. A hearty "thank you" to Elder Berry for his liberal contribution toward this language lab.

Whether financial statements or final examinations, Mr. Lampson must prepare them both as business teacher and Academy accountant. "Fingers on the home keys, eyes on your copy, you may write," is the familiar chant heard each day by 150 students as they race against the unmerciful stop watch in Miss Leonhardt's typing classes.

MR. MARVIN ROBERTSON MRS. C. L. WITZEL MR. JAMES HANSON

Music as taught by these dedicated teachers truly becomes "one of the most magnificant and delightful presents God has given us." The development of Christian character as well as teaching the complexities of dotted quarters, scales, crescendos, sharps and flats, is the objective of this department.

MRS. WINNIE CARTER

MRS. FLORENCE AIME, DIRECTOR OF
FOOD SERVICE

MRS. DOROTHY DONAHEY

Behind the nourishing and delicious food prepared each day go long hours of back-breaking work for these dedicated women. Preparing three meals a day for 300 hungry students is a vital responsibility. A balance of work, play, study, and wholesome food is the formula for the successful, happy student at Auburn Academy.

MRS. VERNON BERRY
MRS. EUGENE WESSLEN
MRS. RAY LEADBETTER

Vitamins, treatments, and sound advice are the elements used by Mrs. Berry to fulfill the challenge of keeping 350 teenagers healthy and happy. Mrs. Wesslen and Mrs. Leadbetter promote our future welfare by teaching classes in physical education and health principles.

MRS. CLEO LILE
MRS. BESSIE SOULE
MR. ED SPADY

Valuable vocational training is offered in woodworking, metal shop, cooking, sewing, and textile painting. Interest is created and abilities developed as these teachers give instruction in the practical arts of daily living.

MR. ROBERT FARVER

Mr. Farver, himself president of the "Two-Hundred Pound Club," encourages many new members by providing rich milk and delicious ice cream produced at the Academy Dairy. Early hours, fresh air, and lots of hard work each contribute to a well-rounded educational program for the boys who work "down on the farm."

MR. DONALD WERTZ MR. EUGENE WESSLEN

Dirt on the hands, grease on the overalls, and oil on the face are often the lot of these men as they work to keep our school warm and in good repair. As text books are laid aside, thirty boys learn the important qualities of efficiency, industry and dependability as they "assist" these men in their important work.

MRS. RONALD REED MRS. LEWIS BANEK

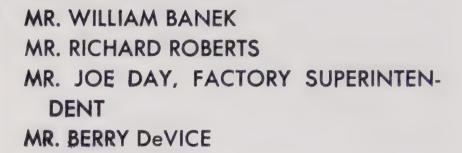

In the laundry where sheets are counted by the hundreds, and towels by the thousands, a variety of tasks are provided for 24 students as the mountains of soiled clothes are laundered each week.

Through the management, sales, and accounting of these men, the Academy Wood Products continues to prosper and provide added opportunities for students to earn their school expenses while preparing themselves for future service.

MR. RICHARD WARMEN MR. ROBERT SCHNEIDER

MR. BILL DAY

MR. L. E. SOULE

MR. S. HELLAND

MR. DAN GRAHAM

MR. RICHARD JARRETT

MR. RUSSELL SLABACH

Under the leadership of these men over ninety students learn by the accurate use of hand and eye the skills of furniture manufacturing.

MR. L. H. AUFDERHAR

A rustle in the bush or grass may startle us momentarily, but on investigation we find it is none other than Mr. Aufderhar, affectionately called "Aufty." His regular hourly rounds keep our campus safe and free of unwelcome guests.

MISSIONARY VOLUNTEERS

Time spent in fellowship with our Maker keeps our faith alive and growing . . .

TEMPERANCE

The development of a strong mind and a well-balanced character is the challenge presented . . .

TEMPERANCE ORATORS: Sylvia Altman, Dick Tolf, Willa Ness, Jason Druitt, Paulette Dressel, Ken Veal, Kathy Russell.

IN GATHERING

Though chilled in the cold, biting air, our hearts were warm as we honored our Saviour in song.

WORSHIP

"Prayer is the opening of the heart to God as to a friend."

- Ellen G. White

. . . The weeks of prayer we experience help us develop our faith and exercise that "greater love" that makes us live each for the other and all for God.

Pause at His feet for a moment of prayer

Elder Hiten counsels during the Fall Week of Prayer.

OCIATED STUDENT BODY

The success off our school depends greatly on its leaders. However, the students as a whole determine the quality, nature, and amount of school spirit. Duties and functions willingly performed by both individuals and committees have encouraged school spirit in the hearts of student, faculty, and friends here at Auburn Academy.

EXTRA DAY ADDED AS CAMPAIGN BOOST

As an incentive to gather RAIN-IER ECHOES subscriptions an extra day of Thanksgiving vacation will be added if 1,000 subscriptions have been turned in before time to go home. The goal, however, is still 1,200.

A skit was given to announce this "reward" in which members of the paper staff participated. Among these were: Ken Veal, President Kennedy; Paulette Dressel, Jackie; Monty Gohl, Nixon; Dave Masterjohn, Andrews; Ron Crause, Jack Essman, Don Pressnal, FBI men; Wayne Young, detective; Doug Schultz, announcer; Janice Bitzer, organist; Barbara Grubb, pianist.

Prizes are being awarded for the highest number of subscriptions. At present Ron Reed leads the group with 22. The prizes include $5 credit at the school store, and a $35 grand prize to be applied to the winner's account.

All who turn in 15 or more subscriptions before midnight, November 30, will be eligible for the ski picnic.

Mr. Ray Leadbetter and Mr. Cleo Lile, Sponsors!

SONGTERS TO TRAVEL TO VANCOUVER FOR INTERNATIONAL YOUTH'S CONGRESS

A Cappella Choir members are looking forward to performing at the International Youth's Congress convening November 12 in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The "Blue Beetle" will take them to Vancouver where they will give an afternoon program in the New Westminster Junior High School. They will also sing for the 11 o'clock service.

The numbers to be presented on the program are: "Jesu, Word of God Incarnate," "The Beatitudes," "Ain'a That Good News" "God of Our Fathers," and others.

The congress will be a review of the Youth's Congress held in Atlantic City last summer, which emphasized "Spotlight on the Bible."

AMATEUR HOUR COMING

The Knights of Casa Loma present their annual Amateur Hour November 19 at eight o'clock in the Rainier Auditorium.

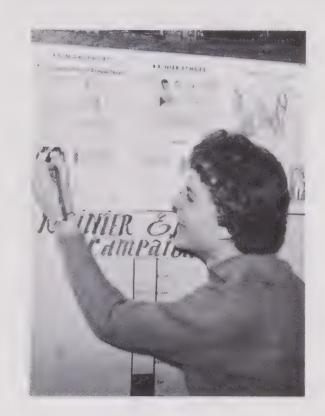

Ed Webb, M. V. Secretary of the Washington Conference, is to be the master of ceremonies, and starring as guest artists will be the Heralds of Song from southwestern Idaho. Serious selections, comedy numbers, and readings will be featured in the program.

hard!

Out of the mirky dusk of men's forebodings
Climb upward, far above this earthly strife,
But know that the laurels of the victor
Are won on the lowly battlefield of Life.

To climb the heights of glory and achievement And not forget the work that must be done, To touch the hand of God and man in service — Make this your goal, The Class of '61.

Remembering still the needs of the teeming valley Clim, climb above earth's puny spires and spars, Seek oft the heights of Love's transfiguration.

Success be yours on the Stairway to the Stars.

INTRAMURAL FLAG FOOTBALL

BACKFIELD: Ricky Cloin, Bob Littlejohn, Lee Wolverton LINE: Bob Price, Ray Helberg, Wesley Fisher, James Pashtat, Tom Ronan.

Doug Feather is all alone as he catches this pass on the 16 yard line.

Under the leadership of Mr. Woods and Mr. Barrow, our intramural sports program, with emphasis on teamwork and sportsmanship, has been greatly expanded this year. Flag football is the latest of our organized intramural sports. The rules that govern the game of flag football are altered considerably from the rules of regular football. There are eight players on each team and each player is equipped with a flag. Removal of the ball carrier's flag consititutes a down. There is no tackling. The length of the field is 90 yards, rather than the regulation of 100 yards.

There were five teams in the Intramural Flag Football League this year. After many a grueling battle on the gridiron. Lee Wolverton and Larry Hunton quarterbacked their teams into a first place tie.

Lee Wolverton is about to be stopped by defending flag stealers.

INTRA CLASS BASKETBALL

JUNIORS: Rick Cloin, Bob Littlejohn, James Pashtat, Archie Silcox, Lee Wolverton, Tom Ronan.

Play periods during the long winter months provide ample time for the intra class basketball games. With fair play and teamwork uppermost in the minds of the players, and with the loyal support of their respective classes, the teams strive hard to take the laurels.

Ken Heffel takes the short toss from Charley Wren in an attempt to stop base runner Ricky Cloin. The next hitter, Bob Littlejohn, watches intently.

INTRA CLASS BASEBALL

With the first signs of clearing weather the gym becomes a tomb and all of the activity turns to the baseball field. From there we hear the familiar sounds of the horsehide against the hickory. Spring practice brings the usual sore arms and aching backs, but to those who train diligently comes the reward of a place on the team.

INDIVIDUAL

SPORTS

Emphasis is also placed on the development of the person in the field of individual sports. From fall to spring you will find many practicing tennis, ping-pong, horseshoe, tumbling, trampoline, weight lifting, and also participating in regular physical education program sponsored by the school.

Another year has come and gone, a rewarding year, one in which we have been building for the future and preparing for service. As in the parable of the builders, we hope that our building has been founded on the solid Rock, Christ Jesus.

This yearbook has been a co-operative effort of many individuals. I would like to take this opportunity to thank those who have so willingly and faithfully shared the responsibilities of publishing the 1961 RANIER VISTA.
